Conflict of Interest Exists in the event of:

- Firms who have a business or family relation with the PRINCIPAL, directly or indirectly.
- Practices prohibited under the anti-corruption policy of the Government of India and Government of Odisha. The interested firms are to be careful so as not to give rise to a situation where there will be any conflict of interest with the PRINCIPAL as this would amount to their disqualification and breach of contract.

Disclosure:

- Firm has an obligation to disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest. Failure to do so will lead to disqualification of the bidder or termination of its contract.
- Firm must disclose if they are or have been the subject of any proceedings (such as blacklisting) or other arrangements relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or the financial standing of the firm, including but not limited to appointment of any officer such as a receiver in relation to the firm's personal or business matters or an arrangement with creditors, or of any other similar proceedings.
- Firm must disclose if they have been convicted of, or are the subject of any proceedings relating to:
 - A criminal offence or other serious offence punishable under the law of the land, or where they have been found by any regulator or professional body to have committed professional misconduct.

- Corruption including the offer or receipt of an inducement of any kind in relation to obtaining any contract.

Failure to fulfill any obligations in any jurisdiction relating to the payment of taxes or social security contributions.

Anti Corruption Measure:

- Any effort by firm(s) to influence the PRINCIPAL in the evaluation and ranking of financial proposals, and recommendation for award of contract, will result in the rejection of the proposal.
- A recommendation for award of contract shall be rejected if it is determined that the recommended firm has directly, or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive practices in competing for the contract in question. In such cases, the PRINCIPAL shall reject the proposal and disqualify it from participating in any related RfP process.

Force Majeure:

- "Force Majeure" means an event beyond the control of the selected firm and not involving the selected firm's fault or negligence and not foreseeable.
- Such events may include wars or revolutions, fires, floods, riots, civil commotion, earthquake, epidemics or other natural disasters and restriction Imposed by the Government or other bodies, which are beyond the control of the selected firm, which prevents or delays the execution of the order by the selected firm.

- If a Force Majeure situation arises, the selected firm shall promptly notify PRINCIPAL in writing of such condition, the cause thereof and the change that is necessitated due to that prevailing condition. Until and unless otherwise directed by the PRINCIPAL in writing the selected firm shall continue to perform its obligations as per the RFP terms & conditions as far as possible and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for delivering performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.
- The selected firm shall inform the PRINCIPAL in writing, the beginning and the end of the above causes of delay, within seven days of the occurrence and cessation of the Force Majeure condition. In the event of a delay lasting for more than one month, if arising out of causes of Force Majeure, PRINCIPAL reserves the right to cancel the contract without any obligation to compensate the selected firm in any manner for what so ever reason.
- The PRINCIPAL and the selected firm shall make every effort to resolve amicably, by direct negotiation, any disagreement or dispute arising between them under or arising from or in connection with the contract.

Governing Laws:

- Any unjustified and unacceptable delay in delivery shall render the selected firm liable for liquidated damages and thereafter the PRINCIPAL holds the option for cancellation of the contract for pending activities and completes the same through any other firm(s) who participated in the RFP process by awarding the same contract to L 2 bidder in the financial bid.

- In such case of premature cancellation the contract the PRINCIPAL reserves the right to withhold the Performance Security.
- The rights and obligations of the PRINCIPAL and the selected firm under this contract will be governed by the prevailing laws of Government of India and Government of Odisha only.

The undersigned reserves the right to reject or cancel any or all tenders without assigning any reason thereof. The decision of committee will be treated as final. The committee reserves the right to cancel any items if the same is not at par with specification given in the tender.
